CODE OF PRACTICE FOR PLAYERS

This club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, players are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Steve Linde the Child Welfare Protection Officer.

As a member of the club you are expected to abide by the following code of practice:

- Participate for the fun of it, not just to please your parents or coach
- Play to the laws of the game
- Accept the referees and officials decisions
- Control Your Temper- You and your team will benefit
- Recognise all good play, whether by your team or your opponent's team – be a good sport
- Treat all players as you yourself would like to be treated. Don't interfere with, bully, or take unfair advantage of any player.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- Remember, as well as the enjoyment the aims of the game are to improve your skills and feel good. Do not be a show off.
- Co-operate with your coach, referee, team mates and opponents, for without them you do not have a game.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team – your team's performance will benefit and so will your own.
- Members should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.
- Members must wear suitable clothing and equipment for training and match sessions, as agreed with the coach/team manager and relevant laws of the game or competition.
- Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly.
